

Life Goals and Skills Day

Hear For You will be hosting a Life Goals and Skills Day in Bundaberg on Friday 22nd September 2023. The day will be held at Chaverim Shalom College Outdoor Education and Environment Centre, this centre is designed to provide personal development and outdoor education.

The day will include a Ropes Course, Indoor Rock Climbing and some team building activities. The day has been designed to bring together like children and teenagers to help build confidence, improve communication skills and help build and foster new friendships and relationships.

The day is open to any deaf/hard of hearing kids or teenagers 11 and over. The day will be fast paced and fast moving with on focus on fun and enjoyment. Hear For You will have a mentors in attendance who themselves are deaf or hard of hearing so they understand first hand the challenges that your children and teenagers have faced and are facing.

The details for the workshop are listed below along with an email to send your expression of interest or to gain more information on the program or Hear For You.
