‘exudes a vigorous artistry’ The Australian

‘music to uplift and nourish the soul’

‘your concerts are a music lover’s paradise’

‘what a precious experience filled with passion and virtuosity!’

Celebrate Mother’s Day weekend with an exquisite concert treat. Don’t miss this special visit to the community by two dynamic and internationally acclaimed classical musicians. Experience an intimate recital of romantic music for cello and grand piano by Brahms, Debussy, Mendelssohn, Vaughan Williams, Saint-Saëns, Arvo Pärt, Fauré, Ravel & Shostakovich. Heart-felt, virtuosic and thrilling - this unique performance is not to be missed!

Louise King {CELLO} is known for her virtuosity, heart-felt musicianship and commanding stage presence. An internationally renowned musician who has performed in four continents, a competition winning, award-winning and highly-prized graduate of both the Royal College and Royal Northern College of Music in London and Manchester, Louise King breaks down the barriers of classical music with her vivacious performance style making it more accessible, enjoyable and meaningful to audiences.

Catherine Guinevere Lynagh {PIANO} studied at Queensland Conservatorium Griffith University with Oleg Stepanov. First prizewinner of the Queensland Piano Competition, the Charles and Motee Rogers Memorial Piano Competition and the Queensland Conservatorium Griffith University’s Margaret Nickson Prize, she is a rare talent.

Don’t miss out! Book your ticket today.
