Get Ready GO Youth Digital Project

Information Session

Council are on the look out for 20 young people aged 10-18 years, interested in developing a digital piece of work to be used for increasing children and young people's preparedness for natural disaster events.

The project will look at developing a digital character and building story lines and music to produce a final product to be launched during Get Ready Week in October 2016

Participants will be involved in the whole design process using open source software including:

- code.org Tutorials
- Scratch animation
- Gimp image editor
- Open shot video editor
- Audacity music editor

The FREE program will be held during the June /July school holidays. Workshops will be from 10-2 each week day and include all materials and resources, and also lunch for participants.

To find out more details about the program, we are holding an information session on:

- Tuesday 14 June 2016
- 5pm - 6pm
- School Of Arts Building – Bourbong Street – upstairs
- RSVP by Monday 13 June to:

At the information session, we will be providing further details about the project's aims and the plan to achieve the desired results. This will provide everyone with an opportunity to ask any questions and to also meet the facilitators of the project.

If you wish to register for the information session please contact us on the details above:

The information session is not compulsory, but provides parents, guardians and participants a further understanding and details to what the project is about and the requirements of being involved.

Registrations forms for the program will be made available at the information session on 14 June 2016 or by contacting us directly after this date.

As places are limited, registration will be required for the workshops.
