

Pride. We have pride.

Anonymous

Pride. We have pride
We are brave
To show ourselves
To let the light out
Refract and shine
Into millions of colours

Love. We feel love
We are humans
We fear you won't see us that way
Some of us don't love the same
But that should be ok

Marching
We go marching in June
To show we are free
That we don't need your permission
To be ourselves

Fair
Everything should be fair
Fair to love
Not a crime to live
Not forced to be fake

Valid
Him, her and they
Not a phase

Not a lie

Not a choice

Us

We are strong

Because we are different and the same

And if some of us aren't ready to be seen

Then that's ok

Only you need to know
